Ballet classes incorporate steps from all of the various methods (Vaganova, Cecchetti, etc).

For the beginner and intermediate level student, we are open to questions/explanations of steps and may or may not include jumps and turns each week. For the more advanced student, we offer alternatives using the full range of classical technique.

Tap classes incorporate various methods and styles of tap, with alternative options provided for the more advanced dancer.

Classwear

Ballet

Men: Please contact the office

Ladies:

- Pink leather full-sole ballet shoes
Note: Advanced dancers may wear split sole canvas or leather

- Bras are required and must be completely covered by the leotard or shirt. Racerbacks, t-backs and halters are visible outside of leotards and shirts and therefore are not permitted.

- Hair pulled back away from the face and secured; no plastic/metal headbands

- No jewelry (except wedding rings and/or small earrings)

- Light pink/ballet pink convertible tights with feet

± your choice of:

1 & 2 or 1 & 3

1) Wide Strap Tank, Short Sleeve or Long Sleeve Leotard, any solid color (no back cutouts/keyholes, mesh, halter, spaghetti/camisole strap or jewel-neck leotards)

2) Separate solid or floral print finger-tip or knee length soft ballet skirt (no tutus or long skirts)

3) Loose-fitting, soft knit capri-length pants

- Legwarmers and/or ballet wrap sweaters or fitted exercise jackets are acceptable, as necessary (no hoodies or baggy jackets/sweaters)

Please Note: While adult students are permitted to wear shirts (with sleeves), yoga pants and exercise jackets in class, it is recommended that beginners wear a leotard, tights and dance skirt,

so the teacher may be able to watch for proper alignment and muscular use
